

Pauline

10, Ruskin Avenue,
Ottawa 3.

My dear Patty.

At this late date
a note from me will more than likely startle
you. forgive me. if you care. for not replying long ago to the proposal and confirmation of the planned activities
for next week. end in Toronto. Much as I would love to reunite with "the girls" (a staggering category for consequently so tidy I couldn't find anything, like notepaper, more particularly time — we move in June.

Enjoyed having lunch with Mary a short while ago — she is more interesting than ever. I sincerely hope she will give me a report. You I would like to see
very much and hope
this may be possible before the 50th reunion — heaven forbid!

I'm sorry Patty but please keep me on the list —

Sincerely,

Dorothy

CORLETT 212

Sunday Evening.

I no longer qualify), I find that after much deliberation, consultation, etc. I cannot be present and I truly couldn't be more disappointed. A combination of obstacles and commitments stand in the way. ^{START HERE} ~~It is interesting~~ to relate — I have a sneaking suspicion that our two youngsters are younger than the offspring of my classmates of '39 — Wendy S. Swan II.

Our house was up for sale when you first began arrived — it was

The Margaret Eaton School Digital Collection is a not-for-profit resource created in 2014-2015 to assist scholars, researchers, educators, and students to discover the Margaret Eaton School archives housed in the Peter Turkstra Library at Redeemer University College. Copyright of the digital images is the property of Redeemer University College, Ancaster, Canada and the images may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email digital images for individual non-commercial use. To learn more about this project or to search the digital collection, go to <http://libguides.redeemer.ca/mes>.